Term life and AD&D insurance

Added assurance that your family's finances will be protected

Christy's story

How life insurance helped

Christy's dad was healthy and active, so his death at age 50 from a heart attack was a shock. Luckily, he had the foresight to purchase life insurance when his employer offered it at work.

Thanks to their benefit payment, Christy and her sister can stay in college, and their mom can remain in their house. During a time of grief and stress, they have one less thing to worry about.

Term life & accidental death and dismemberment insurance

What it does

Term Life:

Provides benefits to reduce financial stress for family members if you pass away during your working years.

AD&D Insurance:

Provides a benefit if you survive an accident but with certain serious injuries and pays an additional amount if you die due to a covered accident.

In VA: This life insurance does not specifically cover funeral goods or services and may not cover the entire cost of your funeral at the time of your death. The beneficiary of this life insurance may use the proceeds for any purpose, unless otherwise directed.

State-mandated limitations for legal services in WA apply.

What you should know

- Benefit: a flat benefit of $30,000
- Accelerated death benefit: 100% to $250,000
- Benefit reduction: to 65% at age 65, 40% at age 70 and 25% at age 75
- Portable
- Life planning financial & legal resources
- Employer-paid benefit

Accelerated death benefit payments will reduce the amount the policy pays upon the covered person's death. As with all tax matters, individuals should consult a tax advisor to assess the impact of this benefit. Receipt of accelerated death benefits may affect eligibility for public assistance program.

Voluntary term life & accidental death and dismemberment insurance

What it does

Term Life:

Provides benefits to reduce financial stress for family members if you pass away during your working years.

AD&D Insurance:

Provides a benefit if you survive an accident but with certain serious injuries and pays an additional amount if you die due to a covered accident.

Non-medical maximum

- Enroll up to the non-medical maximum without answering health-related questions.
- Enrolling yourself or your spouse during this enrollment in the minimum benefit you lock-in a non-medical maximum amount for any future re-enrollments.
- If you do not enroll during this period and decide to enroll in the future, you will have to answer health-related questions.

In VA: This life insurance does not specifically cover funeral goods or services and may not cover the entire cost of your funeral at the time of your death. The beneficiary of this life insurance may use the proceeds for any purpose, unless otherwise directed.

What you should know

- Employee benefit: Up to 5 X annual salary to a maximum benefit of $500,000
- During initial enrollment, regardless of health status, employee can be approved for an amount up to: $200,000
- Spouse benefit: $5,000 increments up to a maximum benefit of $250,000
- During initial enrollment, regardless of health status, spouse can be approved for an amount up to $35,000
- Child(ren) benefit: Age-based amounts up to $20,000, for ages up to 26 years.
- Accelerated death benefit: 100% to $250,000
- Benefit reduction: to 65% at age 65, 40% at age 70, and 35% at age 75
- Employee-paid benefit

* If you apply for coverage above the amount offered regardless of health status, you will be asked health related questions which may affect your ability to get the larger coverage amount. In order to purchase coverage for your dependents, you must buy coverage for yourself.

Accelerated death benefit payments will reduce the amount the policy pays upon the covered person's death. As with all tax matters, individuals should consult a tax advisor to assess the impact of this benefit. Receipt of accelerated death benefits may affect eligibility for public assistance program.

Short term disability insurance

Works when you can't

Bill's story

How Short Term Disability Insurance helped

Bill didn't see the car coming toward him until it ran the red light. He also didn't predict that he'd need leg surgery that would keep him out of work for four weeks.

His Short Term Disability Insurance didn't replace 100% of his income, but it helped him cover his living expenses and medical costs while he wasn't getting a paycheck.

Bill can use the money any way he wants to.

Short term disability insurance

What it does

Replaces a portion of your income when you're unable to work to help you financially when facing an illness or injury.

What it covers

Conditions that keep you from working, for example:

- Recovering from regular pregnancy
- Joint disorders
- Injuries
- Behavioral health issues
- Digestive disorders

Deductible sources of income: Your disability benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income and any earnings you have while you are disabled, including such items as group disability benefits or other amounts you receive or are entitled to receive. Refer to your certificate for a complete list of deductible sources of income.

What you should know

- Maximum weekly benefit: $1,500 or 60%
- Benefit duration: 12 weeks
- Definition of disability: Residual
- Elimination period injury/sickness: 7/7 days
- Pre-existing condition limitation: 3/6
- Employee-paid
- Maternity benefit:^{*}
 - Total duration minus elimination period
 - 6 weeks for regular delivery; or 8 weeks for C-Section

^{*}Complications due to pregnancy are treated as any other sickness.

Pre-existing conditions: You have a pre-existing condition if: You received medical treatment, consultation, care or services including diagnostic measures for the condition, or took prescribed drugs or medicines for it in the 3 months just prior to your effective date of coverage; and the disability begins in the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage.

Long term disability insurance

A stronger safety net for longer lasting disabilities

Jake's story

How Long Term Disability Insurance helped

When Jake had a stroke, he was taken to a stroke center right away. The damage was limited, but he still had to miss a few months of work while he went through rehabilitation. With no paycheck coming in, he would have had a hard time paying living expenses and out-of-pocket medical costs.

Luckily, Jake had Long Term Disability Insurance. It didn't replace 100% of his salary, but it provided income to put toward the basics like groceries, surgery co-pay, rent, entertainment, cell phone and utilities.

Long term disability insurance

What it does

Replaces a portion of your income when you're unable to work for an extended period of time.

What it covers

Conditions that keep you from working:

- Joint disorders
- Cancer
- Behavioral health issues
- Injury and poisoning
- Circulatory diseases

Deductible sources of income: Your disability benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income and any earnings you have while you are disabled, including such items as group disability benefits or other amounts you receive or are entitled to receive. Refer to your certificate for a complete list of deductible sources of income

What you should know

- Maximum monthly benefit: $6,000 or 60%
- Benefit duration: Social security normal retirement age
- Definition of disability: 2-year Residual
- Elimination period: 90 days
- Pre-existing condition limitation: 3/12
- Employee-paid

Pre-existing conditions: You have a pre-existing condition if: You received medical treatment, consultation, care or services including diagnostic measures for the condition, or took prescribed drugs or medicines for it in the 3 months just prior to your effective date of coverage; and the disability begins in the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage.

Accident insurance

Helps with costs that medical insurance doesn't cover

Rob's story

How Accident Insurance helped

Rob bought a new bike so he could lose a few pounds — but he lost his balance instead. He was diagnosed with a torn knee ligament and a broken toe. Rob had one lucky break — his accident insurance paid him $900:

$400
ambulance benefit

$150 emergency room benefit¹

$100 fractured toe

$150
two follow-up visits

$100 crutches

Illustrative purposes only.

Actual benefits amounts can change depending on actual plan design and some benefits may not be available in some states.

¹ In some states, benefit may be paid directly to licensed professional service.

Accident insurance

What it offers

Pays a set amount for various treatments and services if you get injured accidentally on or off the job.

Rob had a bike accident, and his accident insurance covered $900:

- $400 ambulance benefit
- $150 emergency room benefit

Critical Illness insurance

A lifeline when you're seriously ill

Lisa's story

How Critical Illness insurance helped

Lisa was planning her daughter's wedding when a brain tumor disrupted her plans. Thanks to her Critical Illness coverage, Lisa was able to afford the out-of-pocket costs her medical insurance didn't cover. When she recovered, she danced at her daughter's wedding without worrying about her bills.

Because she had selected a benefit amount of $20,000, her plan paid her that amount in a lump sum, regardless of what she spent.

Critical Illness insurance

What it does

Pays a lump-sum amount directly to you when you're diagnosed with a covered condition to help pay for out-of-pocket costs like deductibles and co-insurance.
